

I'M A LEADER, I'M A COACH

THE PROGRAM - A must for those who manage professional employees

Target Audience	Senior Managers, middle managers HR Professionals, and anyone with an interest in modern workplace leadership and coaching.
Key Objective Of the Program:	To ensure that all participants understand the role of 'leader as a coach' and can apply a practical coaching model to everyday workplace situations.
Learning Outcomes of the Program:	At the conclusion of this program, participants: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Explain the manager's role as a coach• Explain why coaching is an important component of the modern workplace leaders role• Identify appropriate situations to apply coaching style of leadership• Identify different coaching needs – skills and behaviours• Apply appropriate coaching models in the workplace
Resources:	Sebastian Harvey, facilitates this program. To bridge the gap between theory and practice the learning experience is highly interactive and will incorporate Workplace Reality Theatre (actors) using numerous powerful role plays and improvisations, and case studies. No power point overheads will be used to teach concepts in this program.
Methodology:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Interaction and role-plays 50%• Facilitation and discussions 35%• Case studies and exercises 15%
Structure:	1 day

For further information please contact iHR Asia:

Telephone +66 0 2305 8787 or Email: rakdao@ihrasia.net